Designing solutions for you and your clients

I need a solution that fits not just my clients' business but my business as well

Designing solutions for brokers and their clients is what we do best

At Bluefin we understand your clients' needs are different - that's what makes life interesting.

The days of the one-size-fits all approach to insurance are long gone and today's financial climate demands a much more flexible and progressive attitude to protecting your clients' business.

That's why at Bluefin we take the time to talk to you and understand your brokerage and your clients' needs before we make any recommendations. Once we have a clear understanding, we use our knowledge and expertise to guide you to the most appropriate solutions.

We believe in expert, tailored advice.

Try us out for size and see how we fit.

I need to work with people who know what they are doing - people I can trust

Working in partnership with brokers

It is not what we do but how we do it that makes us different.

Life is complicated enough. We like to keep things simple. How? Through expertise. Expertise that comes from understanding the market, your business and your clients.

By putting you and your clients at the heart of everything we do, we are able to give you the peace of mind you need. The peace of mind that means the advice you receive from us is something you can pass on to your clients with confidence; that means the policies you provide are relevant, market leading and competitive; that the administration is fast and efficient.

We know that the more we listen, the better we get.

Getting down to business

They say if you don't explore you don't progress

We can work exclusively if appropriate and will accompany you on client visits if you need our expertise.

Bluefin produce documentation in-house and offer an exceptionally quick turnaround on quotations. We know in these rapidly changing times it's not about us, it's about helping you and your clients.
